Anti-money Laundering

In addition to helping you with a property related service we have to comply with certain regulations for example the 'Money Laundering, Terrorist Financing and Transfer of Funds (Information on the Payer) Regulations 2017 (referred to as 'the Regulations'). We and other subsidiaries are required to obtain certain information from you to comply with the Regulations.

We will require two separate Identification documents one primary and one secondary document even if it appears on both lists. The information may be required at various stages of the process.

We reserve the right to employ third party electronic verification for the purpose of verifying identity. This search will not affect your credit rating.

Promotional Communications

We may use your personal information to send you updates (by email, text message, telephone or post) about our services, including offers, promotions or new products or services.

We will always treat your personal information with care and never share it with other organisations for marketing purposes unless otherwise stated in this privacy policy.

You have the right to opt out of receiving promotional communications at any time by:

- contacting us at privacy@linleyandsimpson.co.uk
- using the 'unsubscribe' link in emails
- contacting us at our head office

We may ask you to confirm or update your marketing preferences if you instruct us to provide further services in the future, or if there are changes in the law, regulation, or the structure of our business.

Information We Share

We do not sell or otherwise disclose personal information we collect about you, except as described in this notice or as indicated via the consent process at the time the data is collected. We share the information we collect with, but not limited to:

- Vetted affiliates, consultants and partners / financial institutions / insurance companies for business facilitation to provide required services, such as mortgages, insurance cover etc.
- Formally contracted service providers to perform services on our behalf.
- Helpdesk and Call Centres who help us to carry out our services.

We contractually require these service providers to safeguard the privacy and security of personal information they process on our behalf and authorise them to use or disclose the information only as necessary to perform services on our behalf or comply with legal requirements.

- Review and customer satisfaction specialists to seek customer opinion and feedback.

- Credit agencies, Land Registry Office, Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs (HMRC), Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and other relevant regulatory bodies
- Additionally we may share information about you, if required legally, to prevent harm or financial / reputation loss, for investigation of suspected or actual fraudulent or illegal activities
- Perspective employers requesting references via your written consent

We reserve the right to transfer your information in the event of a sale or transfer (wholly or partially) of our business or assets.

Where your personal information is held

Information may be held at our offices and those of our group companies, third party agencies, service providers, representatives and agents as described above (see above: 'Information we Share').

Some of these third parties may be based outside the European Economic Area. For more information, including on how we safeguard your personal information when this occurs, see below: 'Transferring your personal information out of the EEA'.

How long do we keep information for?

We will keep information for a reasonable amount of time in order to perform the purposes listed above.

We only keep your information for as long as necessary. We generally keep personal information for 7 years after last contact with you in order to keep records required by law or to respond to any questions from you after we have completed our services.

Transferring your information out of the EEA

To deliver services to you, it is sometimes necessary for us to share your personal information outside the European Economic Area (EEA), for example:

- with your and our service providers located outside the EEA;
- if you are based outside the EEA;

These transfers are subject to special rules under European and UK data protection law.

These non-EEA countries do not have the same data protection laws as the United Kingdom and EEA. We will, however, ensure the transfer complies with data protection law and all personal information will be secure. Our standard practice is to use standard data protection contract clauses that have been approved by the European Commission.

If you would like further information please contact our Data Protection Officer (see 'How to Contact Us' below).

Your Rights and Choices

Your rights regarding the sensitive / personal information we maintain about you enable you to exercise choices about what personal information we collect from you, how we use that information, and how we communicate with you.

These rights are:

Access

You have the right to:

- obtain confirmation that we hold personal information about you
- request access to and receive information about the personal information we maintain about you
- receive copies of the personal information we maintain about you
- object to how we use your data

The right to access personal information may be limited in some circumstances by local law requirements.

To exercise these rights, please see the details in 'How to Contact Us' below.

Update and correct inaccuracies in your personal information

If you feel that the information we hold about you is incorrect or inaccurate you can contact us outlining the information you feel is incorrect or inaccurate.

If we refuse to correct your personal information, we will provide you with a written notice that sets out the reasons for our refusal (unless it would be unreasonable to provide those reasons) and provide you with a statement regarding the mechanisms available to you to make a complaint. We will provide you with access to information we hold about you.

Data Portability and the right to be forgotten

You have the right to receive this information you provided us in a structured, commonly used and machine readable format and/or transmit that data to a third party in certain situations. You also have the right to require us to delete your personal information in certain situations.

How to Contact Us / Complaints and Feedback

- if you wish to make a complaint about a breach of your personal information, applicable privacy laws / principles
- or would like access and / or update information or preferences you provided

You may e-mail us at:

privacy@linleyandsimpson.co.uk

Or write to us at:

Group Data Protection Officer, Linley and Simpson Group Ltd, Troy Mills, Troy Road, Horsforth, Leeds, LS18 5GN

To assist us in responding to your request, please give full details of the issue. We attempt to review and respond to all complaints within a reasonable time.

If we cannot for lawful reasons complete your request we will explain this to you to the extent that we lawfully can.

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) also gives you the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority. The supervisory authority in the UK is the Information Commissioner who may be contacted at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns> or telephone 0303 123 1113.

How We Protect Personal Information

The security of your personal information is very important and Linley and Simpson is committed to protecting the information we collect. We maintain administrative, technical and physical safeguards designed to protect the personal information you provide or we collect against accidental, unlawful or unauthorised destruction, loss, alteration, access, disclosure or use.

We also have procedures in place to deal with any suspected data security breach. We will notify you and any applicable regulator of a suspected data security breach where we are legally required to do so.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

We may change this privacy notice from time to time. When we do, we will update the version date on our website.
